P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: God invites us to come into his presence and worship him with humble and penitent hearts. There, let us acknowledge our sinfulness and ask him to forgive us.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil, and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment, both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ I pray, Lord have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God our Heavenly Father, has been merciful to us, and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore as a called servant of Christ, and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins, in the name of the Father † and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

FIRST LESSON

EXODUS 15:1-11

Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: "I will sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea. The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him. The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name. Pharaoh's chariots and his army he has hurled into the sea. The best of Pharaoh's officers are drowned in the Red Sea. The deep waters have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone. "Your right hand, O LORD, was majestic in power. Your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy. In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you. You unleashed your burning anger; it consumed them like stubble. By the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The surging waters stood firm like a wall; the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea. "The enemy boasted, 'I will pursue, I will overtake them. I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.' But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters. "Who among the gods is like you, O LORD? Who is like you-- majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?

Choir sings verses and first refrain; Congregation sings all subsequent refrains

Setting by Richard Proulx

Refrain

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; God's love endures forevermore.

So let the children of Israel say: God's love endures forevermore! REFRAIN

The Lord's right hand has triumph brought; the Lord's right hand has raised me up.

I shall not die but I shall live, singing of all God's mighty deeds! REFRAIN

The stone the builders would not use has now become the cornerstone.

Such wonders are the work of the Lord, and they are marvels in our sight! REFRAIN

SECOND LESSON

1 CORINTHIANS 15:1-11

Now, brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain. For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Peter, and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born. For I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them-- yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. Whether, then, it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

ANTHEM

I WILL RISE

Lloyd Larson

*There's a peace I've come to know, though my heart and flesh may fail.
There's an anchor for my soul. I can say, "It is well."*

Jesus has overcome, and the grave is overwhelmed. The victory is won; he is risen from the dead.

And I will rise when he calls my name; no more sorrow, no more pain.

I will rise on eagles' wings, before my God fall on my knees, and rise. I will rise.

There's a day that's drawing near when this darkness breaks to light, and the shadows disappear, and my faith shall be my eyes.

And I hear the voice of many angels sing, "Worthy is the Lamb!"

I hear the cry of ev'ry longing heart, "Worthy is the Lamb!"

GOSPEL READING (SERMON TEXT)

LUKE 24:1-12

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: "The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again." Then they remembered his words. When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ. (sung)

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary,
and became fully human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please stand

P: Christ is risen!

C: He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

P: Living Lord and risen Savior, accept our alleluias and increase our joy that comes from knowing you have risen from the dead. Comfort us with the assurance that our sins are forgiven and that eternal life in heaven is sure. Cause the Easter message to give us joy, and lead us to go and tell the good news of your resurrection to the people who don't know the true meaning of Easter. By your grace, make the light of the gospel shine brightly through us so that the message of the cross will not be hidden but revealed to all that they might be saved. We pray this in Jesus' name, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen. (Sung)

P: Brothers and sisters: Go in peace. Live in harmony with one another. Serve the Lord with gladness.

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.

C: Amen. Amen. Amen. (Sung)
